

Kolton Shipley

P.O. Box 665// Tecumseh, OK 74873 // (405) 650-1015 // Kolton.Shipley@okstate.edu

Education

Oklahoma State University

Expected Graduation Date: May 2017

Stillwater, Oklahoma

Bachelors of Science in Agricultural Education, Teaching Option

Professional Experience

Weatherford High School-Weatherford, OK, Student Teacher

January 2017- May 2017

- Observed effective teaching in safe learning environments
- Established and implemented lessons to all classes
- Facilitated and led FFA experiences
- Coached numerous Career Development Event Teams
- Observed and facilitated numerous Supervised Agricultural Experiences

Tecumseh Veterinary Clinic, Veterinary Technician

March 2010-May 2013

- Gained valuable knowledge in animal care and treatment of ailments
- Experienced how a successful business is run
- Assisted head veterinarian in day to day operations

Apexco Inc., Contracted Laborer

May 2011-June 2013

- Worked as a contracted laborer to clean up corporate buildings
- Organized teams of workers to accomplish tasks
- Learned proper waste disposal

Whittington Showpigs, Hired Ranch Hand

November 2010-December 2014

- Learned feed management, farrowing management, and farm management
- Learned proper ways to set up and run a successful livestock sale
- Strengthened social network through buying and selling pigs

Honors and Leadership

Fall 2009-Present

- Tecumseh High School FFA President
- Tecumseh High School FFA Reporter
- Oklahoma FFA State Degree Recipient
- Oklahoma Animal Science Ag Ed Career Passport Recipient
- American FFA Degree Recipient
- Fall Semester Deans Honor Roll
- Published in Journal of Introductory Biology Investigations

Kolton Shipley

Involvement

- FarmHouse Fraternity Member
- Oklahoma State University Swine Club Member
- Oklahoma State University Animal Science Club Member